Röhm Expands its Executive Board

Sontheim – 04/04/2019. Clamping and gripping specialist Röhm will be expanding its corporate executive board, effective as of April 1, 2019. Together with Mr. Gerhard Glanz, Dr. Till Scharf will take on the new role of COO/CTO.

Dr. Scharf will be responsible for the Logistics, Development, Construction and Production business divisions.

After earning an engineering degree from the University of Stuttgart and collaborating on projects at the Fraunhofer Institute for Production Technology and the Institute for Combustion Engines and Vehicle Technology, Dr. Scharf successfully studied for a doctorate at the University of Clausthal. Within the scope of his career Dr. Scharf has held a variety of managerial positions with market-leading companies and corporations in the industrial and automotive sectors.

“We are pleased to be able to welcome such an internationally experienced manager as Dr. Scharf joins our team. He has already proven himself to be a highly successfully leader and we are confident that he will assist us in mastering the current optimization tasks within our corporate group even faster and more efficiently,” says CEO and co-owner Gerhard Glanz.

INFO:

Founded in 1909, RÖHM GmbH is headquartered in Sontheim an der Brenz/Germany with further facilities in Dillingen and St. Georgen. The company is one of the world's leading clamping tool manufacturers, providing an extensive product offering and in-house, high-performance customized production. Some 1,300 employees manufacture and market workholding equipment around the globe, ranging from drill chucks, tool clamping and gripping technology to high-tech power clamping fixtures. In addition, Röhm also develops and manufactures custom products to customer specifications for virtually all clamping applications. Around 50 percent of the products made in Germany are exported and the company has become a global player, expanding its activities in Latin America, Eastern Europe, and Asia. Röhm has 60 agencies and 15 branches worldwide. Since September 2017 Gerhard Glanz has been the CEO of the Röhm GmbH corporate group and is now being joined by Dr. Till Scharf.
